++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Very cold, with sunny spells. Brisk winds.

Today:
A very cold start, and largely sunny, although cloudier towards the coast where the odd snow shower cannot be ruled out. Cloud likely thickening a little through the day, but most parts dry. Remaining cold, particularly in the brisk wind. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tonight:
Clear skies developing, and feeling very cold in the brisk winds. Dry, although some western parts likely turning a little cloudier towards dawn. Icy stretches possible on untreated surfaces. Minimum temperature -4 deg C (25 deg F).

Saturday:
Another cold day, and feeling especially raw in the strong winds. Early sunshine soon becoming restricted to the far east, as cloud thickens from the west. Staying dry throughout. Maximum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Windy, cold Sunday, before brief snow and sleet spread east, quickly turning to rain. Icy conditions possible, but soon thawing. Milder temperatures Monday and Tuesday, but also rain at times.
